Georgetown Hill Early School Active Shooter Training
Institute for Childhood Preparedness
Falls Church, VA

Dear Friends:

Thank you for attending the Georgetown Hill Early School Active Shooter Training, conducted by the Institute for Childhood Preparedness.

As governor, I am committed to doing everything possible to keep both our schools and communities safe. We are proud to see both Georgetown Hill Early School and the Institute for Childhood Preparedness taking steps to conduct safety, security, and preparedness training in schools across our region. It is crucial that our schools have a practiced plan in place in case the unthinkable happens, and we applaud your work in ensuring you have a plan.

On behalf of the State of Maryland, I want to thank all the teachers and staff at Georgetown Hill Early School for guiding our children through their early education and ensuring the safety of our children in the classroom. Each and every one of you exemplifies what it means to be Maryland Strong.

Please accept my best wishes for a productive training and many more years of success for your organization's mission.

Sincerely,
